

Britain On the Green 2005 at Collingwood

Information

Introduction

CTR's eighth annual event will kick off the 2005 driving and show season for the Washington, DC area. Our beautiful setting again this year is Collingwood, an historic mansion with beautiful gardens and grounds located on the banks of the Potomac River. Collingwood offers us a larger venue with multiple areas for show car displays, vendors, picnicking, and other activities.

Britain on the Green is open to all marques, models, and ages of British cars. Cars will be arranged by Class; Classes will be determined at the club's discretion based on preregistrations received on or before April 8. Awards will be given by Class.

We have alternative routes:

From Points North:

- From the Capital Beltway, take Route 1 South (toward Ft. Belvoir).
- Bear right first opportunity onto service road in front of the Dodge dealership.
- At first light, turn left, cross over Route 1 onto Ft. Hunt Rd.
- Proceed on Ft. Hunt Rd. for about 4 miles, make a left onto Collingwood Road.
- Follow Collingwood Rd. to the GW Parkway. Go straight across the parkway, and Collingwood is on your right.

From Points South:

- Drive North on Route 1 approximately 3 miles further north from the intersection with Mt. Vernon Parkway (Woodlawn).
- Turn Right on Sherwood Hall Lane.
- In approximately ½ mile, turn right on Parkers Lane. Parkers Lane turns into Collingwood Road.
- Continue straight across Fort Hunt Road to the GW Parkway. Go straight across the parkway, and Collingwood is on your right.

We ask that you PLEASE do not arrive before the gates to the show open at 9:30 AM (note new later time!) If you do arrive early and/or if there is a barricade at the Parkway, there are still runners passing. Pull over and be patient. We'll get you across as soon as possible.
